(December 2008) (Learn how and when to delete this template message) (Learn how and when to delete this template message) Tafhim-ul-Quran (Urdu: تفہیم القرآن, romanized: Towards Understanding the Qur'an) is a 6-volume translation and commentary of the Qur'an by the Pakistani Islamist ideologue and activist Syed Abul Ala Maududi. Maududi began writing the book in 1942 and completed it in 1972. [2] [3] Taphhimen is a combination of Orthodox and modernist interpretation and has deeply influenced modern Islamic thinking. It differs from traditional exegeses in several ways. It is more than a traditional commentary on the scripture because it contains discussions and debates on economics, sociology, history and politics. In his text, Maududi highlights the Perspective of the Koran and argues that Islam provides plenty of guidance in all areas. Maududi uses the standard technique to provide an explanation of the Verses of the Qur'an from the Sunnah of Muhammad, including the historical reasons behind the verses. Tafhim largely deals with issues facing the modern world in general and the Muslim community in particular. [4] Naming Tafhim is derived from the Arabic word fahm as means understanding. [5] Translations Maududi wrote his work in Urdu. It has since been translated into languages including English, Hindi, Bengali, Malayalam, Marathi and Pashto. The first English translation was made by Chaudhry Akbar Khan. In 2006, the Islamic Foundation published an abbreviated English translation in a volume by Zafar Ishaq Ansari under the title Towards Understanding the Qur'an. Maulana Maududi took 30 years to finish the work. Maulana Maududi uses the standard technique to provide an explanation of the Koranic verses of the Sunnah of Messenger of Allah (PBUH), including the historical reasons behind the verses. This Tafseer deals to a large extent with issues facing the modern world in general and the Muslim community in particular. It was completed 50 years earlier but readers will always feel that the work was written a few days before, the beauty of Moulana Maudidi's writings. Moulana Maududi has written more than 100 different books and all his writings seem to be masterpieces. What happened? A: Server problems. After a month's loss of service, we are pleased to note that englishtafsir.com are back online. We have a new, larger, more reliable server, and we uploaded the source files to february 13, 09. We apologize to all of you who have patiently waited for englishtafsir.com needs to be fixed. Q: What translation of Tafhim al-Qur'an do you use? A: The translation on this website is a transcript from the first translation of Maududi's Tafhim al-Qur'an, titled The Meaning of the Quran. Islamic Foundation UK has published a second (newer) translation entitled Towards Understanding the Quran. Q: Why did you do englishtafsir.com? A: We wanted a Koran pawir online. One with Arabic text. One with an easy-to-read English translation. One with embedded footnotes to a more detailed comment, but only when needed. We searched the internet for such an easy-to-use Koran translation. We couldn't find one. So we developed one. Q: Is this freeware? A: Englishtafsir.com is freeware. We developed it for our own sake, for the benefit of the Muslims and for the benefit of humanity. Since we did not translate the work, nor did we publish the printed edition, we claim no copyright. It is inappropriate to limit knowledge, especially knowledge of the Qur'an. Q: Really? Can I do what I want with these files? A: You can do whatever you want. Copy freely. Distribute freely. Change freely. Develop a mirror. Develop multiple mirrors. Incorporate it into your website. Make corrections. Deploy the zip file on file sharing networks. Create PDF files that are easy to print and distribute. Create an e-book. Insert audio clips into the text. Develop a program for iPhone. Use your imagination. You have more than our permission, you have our encouragement. However, we ask to include a link back to englishtafsir.com in any project you do, as we would certainly appreciate any web traffic you can provide. Q: Do you make any money on this site? A: No. Although we can cover our expenses and perhaps make a profit by placing ads on this site, we are uncomfortable with the idea. The Koran is nothing to commercialize. Q: How do I donate to cover the costs of maintaining englishtafsir.com? A: Thank you for your friendly offer, but our expenses are covered. If you want to make a donation, we recommend that you give this money to the needy and poor in this world, people who really need it. We like Zakat Q: Are they legitimate? A: Charity Navigator, a group that oversees charities, gave the Zakat Foundation four stars. For reference, the SPCA is also a four-star charity, while the American Red Cross was ranked as two stars. Insha Allah, it's me. Maududi.zip (58mb)- Please report errors - englishtafsir@gmail.com - Corrections are made continuously www.englishtafsir.com is a for-prophet organization - Insha Allah
